

National Tribal & Indigenous Climate Conference

Save the Date
August 31–September 4, 2020

The Institute for Tribal Environmental Professionals (ITEP) is honored to host the United States' First annual National Tribal and Indigenous Climate Conference (NTICC) along with support from the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) Tribal Resilience Program. The NTICC is open to all US tribal nations and Indigenous Peoples from throughout the world, with an emphasis on including our Elders and Youth. The NTICC will convene experts on climate change which will include a balance of Western Science and Traditional Indigenous Knowledges. Topic areas will address: impacts, assessments, adaptation, mitigation, implementation, and solutions. This conference will allow an opportunity to share information and support one another.

We welcome all to join us in 2020!
