

STRENGTHENING COLLABORATION WITH TRIBAL NATIONS

SAVE THE DATE:

Tuesday, February 18, 2020 9:00am – 3:30pm

RIVERWIND CASINO, Norman, OK

The workshop is designed to be a learning exchange between Tribal Nations, the Corps of Engineers (USACE), and other agencies to address water resources related challenges and opportunities.

The meeting will focus on:

- Listening to Tribal Nations' needs and priorities.
- Sharing USACE programs and project opportunities.
- Discussions on how to improve communication & coordination on projects with Tribal nations in Oklahoma

Topical discussions may include:

- Infrastructure needs and other challenges
- Flood preparedness, erosion and other water resources management issues
- Water resource planning studies
- The process for Partnering with USACE on projects and studies

RSVP at <https://go.usa.gov/xVsG2>

Or contact Cynthia Kitchens, Tribal Liaison, cynthia.kitchens@usace.army.mil; Tel 918-669-7042 or
Lori Hunninghake - Lori.Hunninghake@usace.army.mil

Please tell us some of your interests for the workshop and learn more at:
<https://go.usa.gov/xVsG2>

OTHER QUESTIONS? Please contact:

Ron Kneebone (505) 238-4676 or Mike Fedoroff (251) 263-3190

Tribal Nations Technical Center of Expertise

Ronald.R.Kneebone@usace.army.mil

OR

Seth Cohen, Project Manager

USACE Collaboration & Public Participation Center of Expertise (CPCX), Institute for Water Resources

Tel: 303-963-4564 - Mobile: 303-241-4008

Seth.B.Cohen@usace.army.mil

US Army Corps of Engineers
BUILDING STRONG.

IWR